

TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION PORTAL

Intelligent training. Thoughtfully designed.

Alere Learning XChange™ is your complete system for on-demand training. Our in-depth training procedures ensure you and your organization perform testing in a manner consistent with manufacturer and industry recommendations. Once users complete trainings, they can take a quiz to test their knowledge, and receive a certificate after passing with a successful score.

Training and certification

After users complete the online registration process, they can view training materials that are assigned to them on the “Courses” page. Some courses include a quiz to test their knowledge.

By successfully completing a quiz, users can view, print, or save Certificate of Completion PDF's. Certificates include their name, quiz score, and completion date. Users can view completed courses and download certificates anytime they need from the “Certificates” page.
